

How a C-minus Student Passed the Police Written Exam While Straight-A Students All Around Him Failed

If you have decided to pursue a career in law enforcement and become a police officer, you need to know a couple of crucial facts before you start the process:

First... When it comes to passing the Police Written Exam, nobody cares what kind of grades you got in High School or College.

Second... The Police Written Exam is a world of its own with its own rules. You either learn them, or you will probably fail the exam.

How do I know that? Because the cold hard fact is that only 30% of the candidates pass. That means you're going into the exam with the odds stacked against you before you even sit down! It also means that even "good" students with good grades flunk the exam all the time. Obviously, being a good student in school does not help when it comes to passing the police exam... and nobody's impressed that you once made the Dean's List or graduated with honors!

Yet... I passed the exam on my first try, because I knew the secrets—even though I was a below-average student in school

Look, nobody wants to fail the exam. I mean, think about it...

You've announced to the world that you're going to be a police officer. You run around telling everybody about the academy, what departments you'd like to apply to, how it will be when you're out on patrol, yada, yada, yada.

Your family and friends are rooting for you as you take your first few steps toward getting that badge. Expectations are high. You're confident. You apply to your first-choice department, and are invited to sit for the exam. So far, so good.

Then you take the exam...

Of course, you've told EVERYBODY about it, and they are anxiously waiting to hear how you did.

Now... close your eyes and imagine what it would be like having to face everyone and announce that you had failed the exam.

Go ahead... say it out loud: "I flunked the exam." Imagine how pathetic you would feel, especially after all your talk about "gonna become a police officer."

Imagine everyone's reaction. Your family would probably be sympathetic and say "you'll pass next time." Some of your friends might be sympathetic, too, but some WILL bust your chops about it from now until forever (thanks a lot, guys). This is not a pretty picture...

You don't want this. And, you don't have to go through it, if you prepare properly for the exam. After all, it only makes sense to take advantage of the best preparation possible. That's where I come in...

Why Me? Why My Course?

My name is E.L. Forestal. I have been an active duty police officer for a number of years, and have a Bachelor's Degree in criminal justice from Defiance College in Ohio.

I am also a certified personal trainer and strength and conditioning coach.

So when it comes to knowing police work AND the best coaching methods, I've "been there, done that."

Using the exact same secrets you'll find in Pass the Police Exam, I took three police exams for three different departments in two different states.

The results? I passed each exam with flying colors. I ended up with two job offers from two different departments. One of the departments had over 2,000 applicants and was looking to hire only six people. I ended up being one of the six who was chosen!

If I can do it, anybody can!

I am totally serious about this! Don't let poor performance in school discourage you. I was a C-minus student all of my life. But, it didn't matter because I used the inside secrets found in Pass the Police Exam and blew both tests right out of the water.

And you can too!

But First...

You Have to Successfully Apply to the Department Before You Are Invited to Take the Exam

"What do you mean successfully apply? Don't you just fill out the application and send it in?"

Well sure... you can do that! Just don't expect anything to happen!

What do I mean? Simple...

Police departments all across the country get a constant flood of applications for relatively few openings. So the first task the department has to do is weed out most of the applicants. They do that using the application.

In fact, many departments are so busy that they use a computerized screening process to reject applications that don't measure up. In other words, a whole bunch of people get rejected before their application is even seen by a human!

What this means is that filling out the application correctly is every bit as important as doing well on the exams and other phases of the department's selection process.

You must understand that there are many, many things that can knock your application out of the running. Stupid things like misspelled words (there's no excuse for those!). You cannot treat the application in a casual way. It has to be perfect and represent the best you have to offer. I will show you how that's done.

Oh, one more thing... If your application is rejected, you never find out why! You do not get any feedback that lets you know where you made mistakes so you can fill out the application the right way the next time.

But I Can Help You Fill Out the Application the Right Way the FIRST Time—with Pass the Police Exam!

One of my friends decided he wanted to be a police officer. He went through the application process and was quickly disqualified. So he went through the process again—but this time he asked me to review his application before he sent it in.

I was shocked to see all the major mistakes he had made. I helped him complete his application correctly and trained him for the written exam and fitness test, and finally the oral interview. He aced everything, got on the eligibility list, and eventually got hired within nine months!

I can do the same for you! I will walk you through the application step by step and make sure you do not leave any careless mistakes behind—mistakes that will get your application rejected.

The application is the crucial first step. It has to be 100% perfect! I will help you make sure it is!

You'll also learn:

- ✓ How to complete the application so you'll be noticed (in a good way!) by the recruiter and move to the head of the list of eligible candidates.
- ✓ How to make sure you supply all the material the department needs to process your application. Do you need a resume? I'll answer that...
- ✓ How to maximize your chances for a position by knowing who is hiring.
- ✓ How to make sure you show that you have the special qualities that departments want in their officers. They don't always tell you what they are looking for. But rest assured—they ARE watching you to see if you have these qualities!

On To the Written Exam!

Okay, you followed the guidelines and insider secrets I show you in Pass the Police Exam and have filled out a perfect application. As a result, you have been invited to take the written exam!

Now, Pass the Police Exam will be at your side to take you through the next phase.

There are a lot of key points you need to know, and Pass the Police Exam covers them all.

- ✓ I supply you with sample questions that are closely based on the actual questions found on real exams used by departments across the country. You will know exactly what's waiting for you in the exam room! No surprises with Pass the Police Exam training!
- ✓ I cover key topics including: problem solving; exercising good judgment in various scenarios; verbal abilities; clear writing skills; physical orientation and how to judge direction and distance; memory optimization and how to maximize your observation skills; how to apply mathematical problem solving to real-life situations, and more.

- ✓ Test traps! All the little tricks that are designed to trip you up on your exam. If you're nervous (which you will be) you are far more likely to get caught by these clever tricks. You need to know what they are before you go in, so they will stick out and you can deal with them properly.
- ✓ How to pick the most likely correct answer when you haven't got a clue. Don't panic and don't just guess! There are tried-and-true ways to do this. I'll show you how to use intelligent elimination to arrive at the right choice.

If you follow everything I teach you in Pass the Police Exam, you will walk in owning the exam, and walk out having passed it and ready to move onto the next phase. I am so sure of this that I am willing to guarantee your success! I'll tell you more about that in a moment...

By the way... how much is it worth to you to get all the secrets you need to know to fill out the department application properly and pass the police written exam? And to guarantee your results! Think about that...

Wait a Minute... Didn't You Forget Something? Isn't There a Physical Exam, Too? What About That?

I'm glad you asked! I promised to give you EVERYTHING you need to pass the police entrance process. And I intend to keep my word. Yes, of course there is a physical exam. And I have that covered...

Remember when I introduced myself, I mentioned that in addition to being an active police officer, I am also a certified personal trainer and strength and conditioning coach. In fact...

- ✓ I am recognized as an expert fitness author by Ezine Articles...
- ✓ I have had hundreds of fitness articles published on over a thousand fitness websites around the world...
- ✓ I am the author of the highly popular e-book, 10 Rules of Fat Burning...
- ✓ I was a college football All-American for my college...
- ✓ I am a certified fitness instructor through the American Council Exercise and National Exercise and Sports Trainers Association...
- ✓ I specialize in body fat reduction strategies and functional strength and power training with only the use of resistance bands.

In other words, I am more than qualified to teach you how to get into shape and pass the police physical exam!

And I do just that... in Pass the Police Physical Exam. This material is comprehensive enough that it needed its own book!

Like Pass the Police Exam, this book is written with the understanding that just “being in shape” is not enough. Like the written exam, the police physical exam is in a world of its own and you must be prepared for what you’ll meet up with during the exam.

I’ve seen too many people go into the test thinking they are young enough and healthy enough to handle it easily. Like the written exam, your experience in high school or college doesn’t mean anything—nobody cares if you were an all-star fullback on your football team, or an all-county track champion. The police qualifying physical test has its own rules and requirements. You must know them or you will end up like my friends who shook their heads in disbelief when they failed the physical exam.

I can teach you exactly what is on the exam... how to prepare... how to psych yourself for the test... and how to come out on top.

After all, I have passed the physical exam myself AND I am a certified personal trainer! Believe me when I say that I can get you ready for this exam!

Great Candidates Deserve A Chance

To many great candidates are needlessly eliminated at the beginning of the process because of mistakes they make that are completely avoidable. It has always bothered me that so many good people—folks who would make great police officers—never get past the first steps. If only they can make it through the initial screening process, their communities will benefit by having them on the force, and they will have a chance to enjoy rewarding careers.

I hate to see these great candidates get kicked out of the system prematurely. So I am determined to give them everything I can to help them survive at the beginning—and into their careers.

That is why I have created Pass the Police Exam. I don't want you to be one of those great candidates who doesn't get a chance to pursue a career as a police officer. I'm giving you the chance... order Pass the Police Exam today! And get started on the road toward your new career!
